DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-7, drawn to the overhead roller construction and the cabinet construction of a cabinet assembly, classified in class 312, subclass 334.26.
- II. Claims 8-14, drawn to the drawer construction in a cabinet assembly, classified in class 312, subclass 348.3.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions group I and group II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, Group I has separate utility such as a cabinet with overhead rollers supporting a drawer without shelves and Group II can be used as the drawer of Gemma. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

During a telephone conversation with Mr. Netter on 3 August 2002 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-7.

Applicant in replying to this Office action must make affirmation of this election. Claims 8-14 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim 1 is generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising Figure 1 and Figure 14. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Information Disclosure Statement

The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609 A(1) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the examiner on form PTO-892 has cited the references, they have not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The language of the claims must clearly distinguish the elements of the claims. Therefore the ends of must be clearly distinguished. Terms which make the claims indefinite include: "being formed toward each other providing curved holders" in claim 1 might become -- formed facing each other to provide curved holders --, "any cabinet assembly" in claim 2 may become -- the cabinet assembly --, "the same side of the stanchion lying in the same rotational plane" in claim 4 may become -- two rollers, one of each pair, on one side of the stanchion and in the same rotational plane --. Terms in the claims which lack proper antecedent basis include: "the drawers", "" in claim 1, line 2.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the elements. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted elements are: a "stop arm" is only a stop if it engages some other structure.

Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3637

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-5, as presented, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gemma and further in view of Ziegler et al and the ordinary skill of one versed in the art. Gemma shows a cabinet assembly with overhead tracks, roller supported drawers and a stop 31, 32 and 34. In Gemma part of the stop 31, 32 is attached to the cabinet and part 34 is a flange of the roller truck. Since it is well settled in case law that a reversal of parts is an obvious matter of design choice the attaching of a stop part to the truck is within the ability of one having an ordinary skill in the art. Gemma fails to show a pair of four-wheel trucks guided by a track with curved holders. Ziegler is cited showing another cabinet assembly with overhead tracks guiding drawers with two four-wheel trucks for the purpose of providing stabilize weight distribution of the drawers. Generally the shape and size of an element is considered an obvious matter of design choice. Here the width of the drawers defined in claim 2 is considered to be an obvious matter of design choice within the ability of one having an ordinary skill in the art. It would have been obvious for one having an ordinary skill in the art to have modified Gemma with four wheel trucks guided by curved holders for the purpose of providing stabilize weight distribution of the drawers in view of Ziegler, with a stop part attached to the truck or stanchion and any useful width of drawer as an obvious matter of design choice for one having an ordinary skill in the art.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Tourtellier et al and Richard.
